TYLER MORSE IS BIG ISLIP SHOW WINNER

Old English Sheepdogs Capture Many Prizes, Appearing in Fine Trim.

SETTERS ALSO DO WELL

Berkeley Kennels Entries Give Good Competition to Chief Victors.

IsLIP, L. I., Sept. 27 .- As usual the Morse Old English sheepdogs heavily at the Islip Kennel Club show held on the Polo Ground here today. The Morse bobtails were in superb condition and hit the others hard in the variety classes, where there were money prizes, during the closing half hour of the show. It is dobutful, however, if Champion Slumber, good as she is, can beat her kennel companion, Champion Brent-wood Hero, the dog being the better in

The Berkeley Kennels exhibited a fine det of English setters, and these were the dogs to give the bobtails a run for the money in the classes indicated. The greatest downfall of the day was when the recently imported English champion wollie Weardale Lord, owned by T. P. Hunter of Philadelphia, was placed second to John D. Tietjen's (Williamsbridge, N. X.) Southport Stamps. Both are very good dogs, but the sympathy of the riagside was with the beaten dog.

The West Highland white terriers attracted much attention, and Mrs. Roy Rainey, who had just returned from the other side, accompanied by several dogs, lot of English setters, and these were the tracted much attention, and Mrs. Roy Rainey, who had just returned from the other side, accompanied by several dogs, had the satisfaction of seeing her Highlanders ahead. Ornsay Rhoda made her first appearance for Mrs. Rainey on these shores, and was placed over Robert Goelet's Hussy of Glenmere.

The buildogs were interesting and good, Daniel P. Ritchey of New York following up his Chicago success of the Saturday before. Bertie's Best was in superb condition, and he is a much better dog—as he stands—than when he first came out at Newark and scored in his classes two weeks ago. August Belmont put down a good team of Sealy-ham terriers, but although he tried hard on behalf of his wife with the lemon and white pointer Bracken, he failed to score with him in the winners' class. In this division Col. H. Rieman Duval of New York took all the best prizes.

The Pekingese classes were more than usually large, and a distinct anticipated compliment to Miss Le Doux, who, however, wired the committee that she was unable to keep her appointment, so these classes were taken by Gustay Muss-Ar-

Most of the dogs were very comfortably kennelled in the loose boxes underneath the grand stand. The quafity was thoroughly representative although the entry, for the number of classes, was not leaves.

H. L. Hastinga of Chicago, who exhibited and won with the smooth fox terrier Oxford Polo, by Sabine Reserve, out of Oxford Butterfly, at the Woodmere Kennel Club evening show on Wednesday, probably will remain in New York and interest himself in breeding dogs as a hobby.

WANT JOWETT AS JUDGE.

English Fancier May Decide Terrier

Classes at Philadelphia.

The next show of the Kennel Club of Philadelphia, Pa., will be held during the week following that of the Westminster K. C. February gathering in New York. Among the judges will probably be F. M. Jowett of Moor House, Shipley, Yorkshire, England; and if he consents to act he will take several of the terrier sections. Mr. Jowett is well known in connection with Irish terriers and he also goes in for coursing greyhounds. Philadelphia is both representative and practical. It consists of Raiph C. Stewart, president; Robert E. Straw-bridge, M. F. H., first vice-president; Charles E. Wood, second vice-president; Charles E. Wood, John Sinnott, J. Balley Wilson, Edwin L. Boger and Joseph A. Buchwann. Drs. Henry D. Martien and Raythond Devlin are the veterinarians and George F. Foley, Landsdowne, Pa., show superintendent. A full schedule of classes is in course of preparation.

An acceptance was received last week of John G. Horrax's challenge to match his home bred and "unknown" miniature buil bitch against anything of her breed bred by the owner for $1,000 or any part of that sum a side. In connection with that acceptance C. D. Wetmore, secretary of the Miniature Buildog Club of America, writes The Sun under date of September 13:

"In regard to that acceptance of Mr Horrax's challenge, which I sent you last week in behalf of James A. Sentance of Worcester, Mass., please withdraw the same, as the match is void, as I have purchased the little bitch Mr. Horrax referred to and therefore the match cannot be held. I have written Mr. Sentence to this held. I have written Mr. Sentance to this effect and at the same time requested him to authorize me to put in a challenge him to authorize me to put in a challenge for him to match a miniature of his against any other bred by exhibitor miniature bulldog in America. On receipt of his reply, if favorable, I will be pleased to send you the said challenge, which. I assure you, will be bona fide in all respects. If I get a reply from Mr. Sentance in regard to his general challenge we would appreciate the favor if you could get it in The Sun so it might result in a match being arranged in time to hold on the first Monday in October." the first Monday in October.
